Dual Certificate III in Aged Care and Home and Community Care (HACC)

Course information

Certificate III in Aged Care Work and Certificate III in Home and Community Care are offered as a dual qualification.

This course will equip you with the skills and knowledge to enter the aged care and community services sectors.

How to enrol

If you would like to enrol in this course you need to;

-  Complete the "Application for enrolment" on the reverse of this brochure and return to CREATE to reserve a place
-  Attend an information session so you know what to expect during the course

Work placement

Students are required to successfully complete work placement as part of this course.

The purpose of placement is to;

-  Allow you to put into practise the knowledge you will have gained during the course
-  Experience the industry in a "real life" setting

Students are required to undergo a Police Records Check and Working with Children's Check at their own expense to meet workplace regulatory requirements before commencing work placement

Why train with CREATE?

CREATE has a strong and reputable Aged Care/HACC program that has been running twice a year for the past five years. We combine a highly qualified and experienced trainer with a passion for the industry with quality training and industry based work experience for a winning combination.

We can offer you:

-  Industry entry level training
-  Industry based work placement during the course
-  Both Certificate III in Aged Care Work and Certificate III in Home and Community Care

When and where

The Dual Certificate III in Aged and Home and Community Care is delivered over three days per week for 18 weeks. Class times are 9.30am – 3.00pm.

This course is delivered from CREATE's Head Office and has intakes in both February and July of each year.

Employment Opportunities

Successful completion will enable you to gain employment in aged care facilities and home and community care agencies that have frail aged and people with disabilities in their client group.

Fees and Charges

This course may be available to you at the concession rate. To confirm eligibility speak to your Job Network employment consultant. Alternatively, please contact the CREATE Training Manager or Team Leader.

Students who find it difficult to pay the total balance of their fees prior to commencing the course can elect to pay a deposit and use a payment plan to settle the outstanding balance.
